POLICY

This policy stipulates that all registrants of NSRMIRT are expected to ensure the name they are registered under in the registry corresponds to the name they use in professional practice. If a registrant has a name change it is the registrants' responsibility to supply government issued documentation within 10 working days of receiving this documentation to support name change in the registry.

RATIONALE

Name is a critical means for the public and NSRMIRT to identify a registrant. Incorrect names in the registry create issues for the public, employers, and regulators in identifying an individual. This policy establishes a basic set of requirements for all name changes and aims to assure accurate records for all registrants of NSRMIRT.

PROCEDURE

An individual who wishes to change their name in the NSRMIRT registry is required to provide copies of pertinent government documents such as:

- birth certificate or
- change of name certificate issued under the Nova Scotia Change of Name Act or
- marriage certificates or
- divorce certificates or
- other reasonable proof acceptable to the credentials committee

The documentation must be in English and submitted to the NSRMIRT registrar. The registrar will review documents for acceptability and place an electronic copy in the registrant's file. If documentation meets requirements, the registrar will update the name in the registry. If documents are not listed as accepted documents of proof, the registrar will have the Registration and Licensing committee review acceptability of documents.
